

Friends

of the Capitol

2008 Annual Report

Our Mission Statement:

Friends of the Capitol is a tax-exempt 501(c)(3) corporation that is devoted to maintaining and improving the beauty and grandeur of the Oklahoma State Capitol building and showcasing the magnificent gifts of art housed inside. This mission is accomplished through a partnership with private citizens wishing to leave their footprint in our state's rich history.

OKLAHOMA MURAL

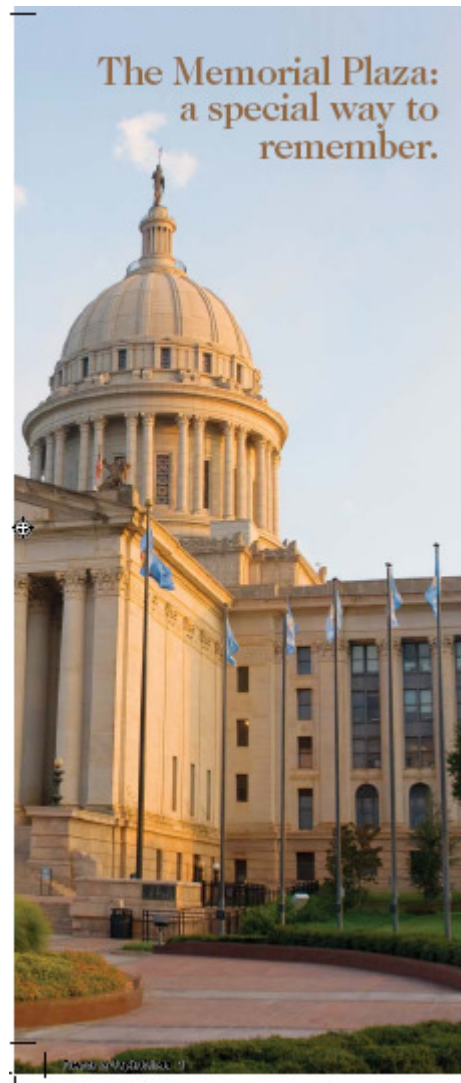

To the left is a photo of the Hall of Governor's showing the planned location of the "Beyond the Centennial" mural. Also included in this $100 thousand dollar project are custom rugs, spot lights for the mural and each governor's statue, which will be funded by Friends of the Capitol.

FUNDRAISING ACTIVITIES

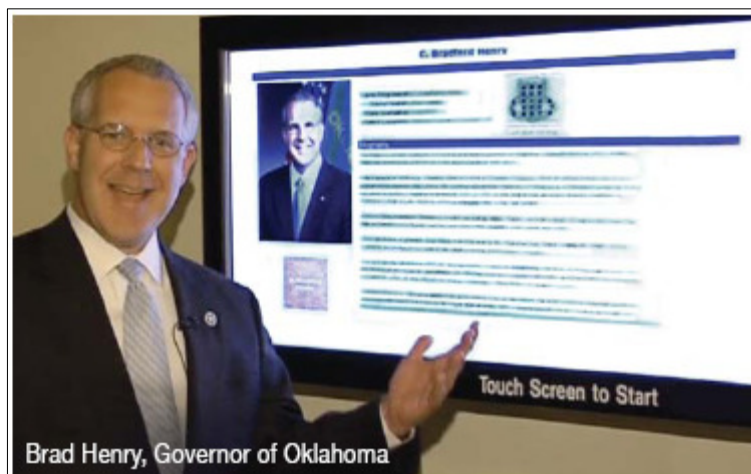

Friends of the Capitol is involved in a variety of fundraising activities, each offering a unique and lasting opportunity to our donors. We offer engraved pavers, Art Treasures book, Mr. Water book, Oklahoma Postcard Collection, and the Oklahoma Black Gold and The Flight of the Spirit Poster Collection. We welcome new and renewed annual sponsorship in addition to supporting these activities directly. We've taken the opportunity to provide a brief summary of some of our fundraising activities on the following pages.

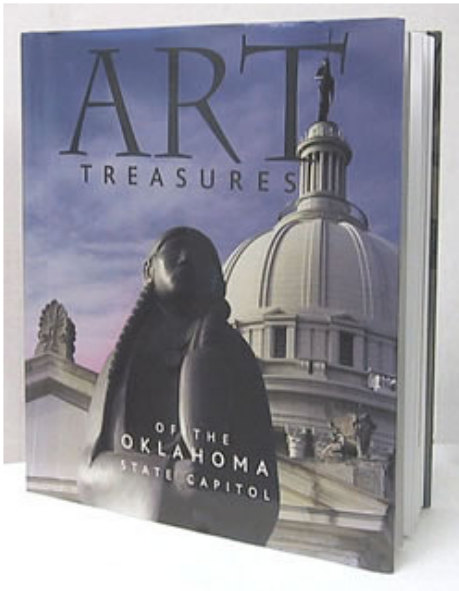

ENGRAVED GRANITE PAVERS

Stately granite pavers line the plaza of the Oklahoma Capitol building. These beautiful 15" x 15" pavers are engraved with the name of the donor or the donor's honoree and will remain on the plaza permanently.

A touch-locator screen in the main entrance of the Capitol, allows you to locate your honoree's paver as well as read their biography.

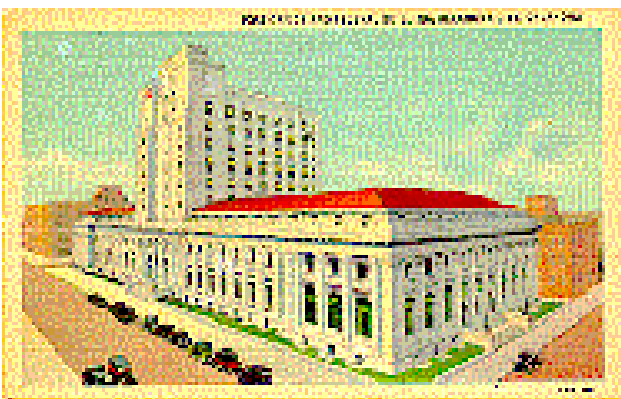

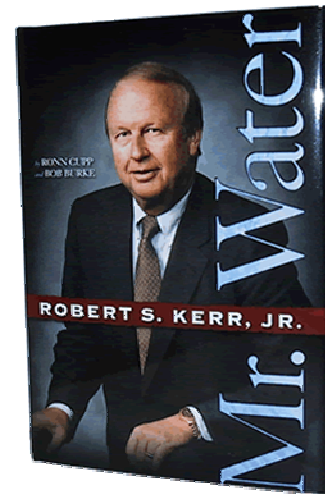

ART TREASURES BOOK

For those who would love unending opportunities to savor the beauty of the artwork on display in our state Capitol, we offer the Art Treasures book. Art Treasures, a book written by Bob Burke, Betty Crow, and Sandy Meyers brilliantly depicts the wealth of artistic expression seen in the Oklahoma Capitol building. Proceeds from the sale of this book benefit the Friends of the Capitol.

MR. WATER BOOK

“Mr. Water”, a book written by Ronn Cupp and Bob Burke tells of Robert S. Kerr, Jr.’s lifelong quest to secure an adequate water supply for every Oklahoman and to protect them from the state’s flood-prone rivers and streams. The book also offers historical insight about Robert S. Kerr, Sr., Dean A. McGee and the oil and gas company they founded. Proceeds from the sale of “Mr. Water”, a book that honors this dedicated and determined Oklahoman and his influential family, benefit the Friends of the Capitol.

OKLAHOMA POSTCARD COLLECTION

Donors to this program are allowed to select a historical postcard from the Capitol collection and sponsor it. The postcard selected will be enlarged and hung in the lower level of the west entryway of the Oklahoma State Capitol building. An engraved plaque, listing the sponsor’s name, will be hung beside the postcard. The postcard collection provides an expressive walk through momentous times in our state’s past.

Poster Collections are replicas of Oklahoma State Capitol murals that can be seen from the fourth floor rotunda area.

Oklahoma Black Gold

In 1996, Jeff Dodd was commissioned to create a mural for the Oklahoma State Capitol in celebration of the oil and gas industry. The mural is located above the Oklahoma State Senate Chamber and can be seen from the rotunda area on the fourth floor. Oklahoma Black Gold celebrates the 100th anniversary of the oil and gas industry in Oklahoma. The wooden structure on the left side of the twenty-two foot mural represents Oklahoma's first attempts at drilling. The oil rig on the right side represents the boundless future of the state. The two roughnecks in the middle of the epic piece display the physical strength and stamina necessary to work in the oil patch as the Oklahoma state flag blankets the state through "booms" and "busts."

Flight of Spirit

In 1991, artist Mike Larsen reached a milestone in his career when he was commissioned to paint a permanent mural for the Oklahoma State Capitol. Named Flight of Spirit, the painting is a tribute to five world-renowned Native American ballet dancers from the state of Oklahoma. Flight of Spirit merges the tragic history of Native Americans with the hope and renewal of modern accomplishments. Behind the illuminated ballerinas is Larson's depiction of the Trail of Tears. Five geese soar over the displaced Native Americans. The geese symbolize the grace and spirit of the five ballerinas.

The beauty of our state's Capitol Building is exquisitely captured in the picture above, provided with permission from Oklahoma City's Meyer Architects. The granite pavers shown in the plaza entrance are the same pavers that Friends of the Capitol donors are purchasing to support our ongoing beautification efforts and memorialize themselves or their chosen honorees.

Recent Initiatives

THE GRAND STAIRCASE

The newest initiative undertaken by Friends of the Capitol is a facelift for the Capitol Building's first floor Grand Staircase. The staircase was adorned with a rug at the base of the staircase and a runner in the center, leading to the Guardian statue on the second floor. The runner is held in place with brass rods. Also located in the grand staircase area are five new benches that replaced the old, outdated ones. Donors are invited to visit and take pride in the revitalization of this historic architectural artistry.

SCULPTURE RENOVATION

Allan Houser's fifteen-foot bronze sculpture, As Long As the Waters Flow, was recently restored by Friends of the Capitol. The Shidoni Foundry; which originally cast the sculpture in 1989, sent their specialist Vince Maggiore to clean and wax the sculpture. Vince removed the excess wax buildup on the entire surface with a torch, applied finishes to smooth out the surface color and waxed the sculpture to seal it for future preservation. This tribute to Native Americans, dedicated on June 4, 1989, is located at the South entrance on the Centennial Memorial Plaza on the Oklahoma State Capitol grounds.
